

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, July 13. 1708.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 10.

Milan, June 26.

THE 23d of this Month at Noon, the Queen of Spain, accompanied by the Bishop of Osnabrug Prince of Lorrain, Count Charles Borromeo, Count John his Son, and several other German and Italian Lords, went to the Borromean Islands in the Lago Maggiore, in Feluccas magnificently adorn'd and furnish'd with Cloth of Gold. At her arrival on the largest of those Islands, Her Majesty was saluted with a Tripple Discharge of the Artillery on the Island and of all the Neighbouring Places. She din'd in a noble Apartment in the Palace, and at Dinner was entertain'd with a Consort of Musick. In the Evening Count Charles Borromeo caus'd an Artificial Firework to be play'd off on the Lake for her Majesty's Diversion. Her whole Court and the Nobility of this City were on the Lake in a great Number of Barks rang'd in the Form of a Circle; and the Diversion was concluded with several Discharges of Artillery, and by Illuminations in the Palace and on the rest of the Island. The 24th the Count treated her Majesty and all her Retinue at Dinner, with great Magificence; and afterwards shew'd her all the delicious Places of those two beautiful Islands. In the Evening her Majesty went on board one of the Feluccas beforemention'd, which were mann'd by 50 Mariners dress'd in Cloth of Gold, and adorn'd with Streamers, in which were the Arms of Spain. At her putting off from the Island, the Artillery were thrice discharg'd, a vast Number of Fireworks were let off, and Illuminations made. Landing from the Lake her Majesty went to Soma, the Seat of the Marquis Don Cesar Visconti; and Yesterday return'd hither with all her Retinue.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated July 13.

Milan, June 30. When the Queen of Spain left the Borromean Islands, she made a Present of a Diamond of great Value to the Countess of Borromeo, and a rich Jewel to the other Countess of that Name her Daughter-in-Law: She also made a noble Present to the Marchioness Visconti. The 4th of next Month her Majesty Sets out from hence, in Order to embark on the Fleet commanded by Sir John Leake: She will be accompanied to the Sea, by Count Julius Visconti and Count Charles Borromeo.

Leith, July 5. This Morning sail'd out of our Road her Majesty's Ship the Strumbolo and Portsmouth for London, and took under their Convoy what Ships were bound thitherward from this Place, and the two Ships from Aberdeen and Montrose mention'd in my last. In the Evening arriv'd several Ships from Holland, who took the benefit of the Bush-Convoy that is come to Fish on our Coast.

Falmouth, July 8. The 6th Instant arriv'd here the Mercury Pacquet-boat Captain Green from London for Lisbon; who nigh Portland took and has brought in a French Shallop of one Gun and 15 Men, which had taken no Purchase since they came out.

Plymouth, July 9. Yesterday sail'd to the Eastward the Dover, Worcester, Deptford, and Dartmouth, with about 60 homeward-bound Merchant-Ships, Prizes, and Coasters for London and Holland. This Day came back from the Westward, by reason of contrary Winds the Exeter and Salisbury, with 6 Transports for Ireland and 7 or 8 Merchant-Ships for the West-Indies, &c.

Shields, July 8. Last Night about 8 a Clock, the Russia Ships with their Convoys sail'd from this Port with a fair Wind. The Portsmouth and Strumbolo joyn'd the other 3 Men of War; and the Newcastle and Chatham is gone back for the Nore, with some laden Colliers and Dutch Doggers.

Dartmouth, July 9. Yesterday pass'd by this Harbour to the Eastward, upwards of 80 Sail of Ships under the Convoy of 7 or 8 Men of War. They were joyn'd from this Port, by the Nuestra Señora de Gracia of Brest, a Ship of 200 Tun laden with Salt for the Banks of Newfoundland, taken by the Prince Eugene Privateer of Flushing 3 Weeks since; and by 6 other Ships for the Coast, London, and Holland.

Ta. mouth, July 9. Yesterday pass'd through our Roads from the Northward about 40 laden Colliers without Convoy; and this Day her Majesty's Ship the Dunwich, and the Light Fleet of Colliers which sail'd with her on Wednesday last, were put back hither by contrary Wind. Came in from the Southward her Majesty's Ship the Norwich; so that here are 4 Men of War in our Road, viz the Norwich, Dunwich, Merlin, and Boneta, with about 70 Sail of Light Colliers and Coasters.

Bristol, July 10. To Day arriv'd here a Ship from Jamaica in 6 Weeks. The Master cannot give any Account when the Fleet for London with their Convoy will sail from thence.

Portsmouth, July 10. This Day came in the Ambuscade, Captain Thompson Commander, from the Streights. Came in also her Majesty's Ship the Worcester from Plymouth, with a Mast Ship for this Dock. The Men of War mention'd in my former, continue at Spithead.

The Ambuscade took in the Streights a French Ship, whose Lading is valu'd at 10000 pounds. She carry'd the Prize into Alicant and left her there, but brought from thence Half her Lading, consisting of Coffee, Linnen, &c.

Harwich, July 10. Yesterday 100 laden Colliers, under Convoy of 2 Men of War, pass'd by for the River.
